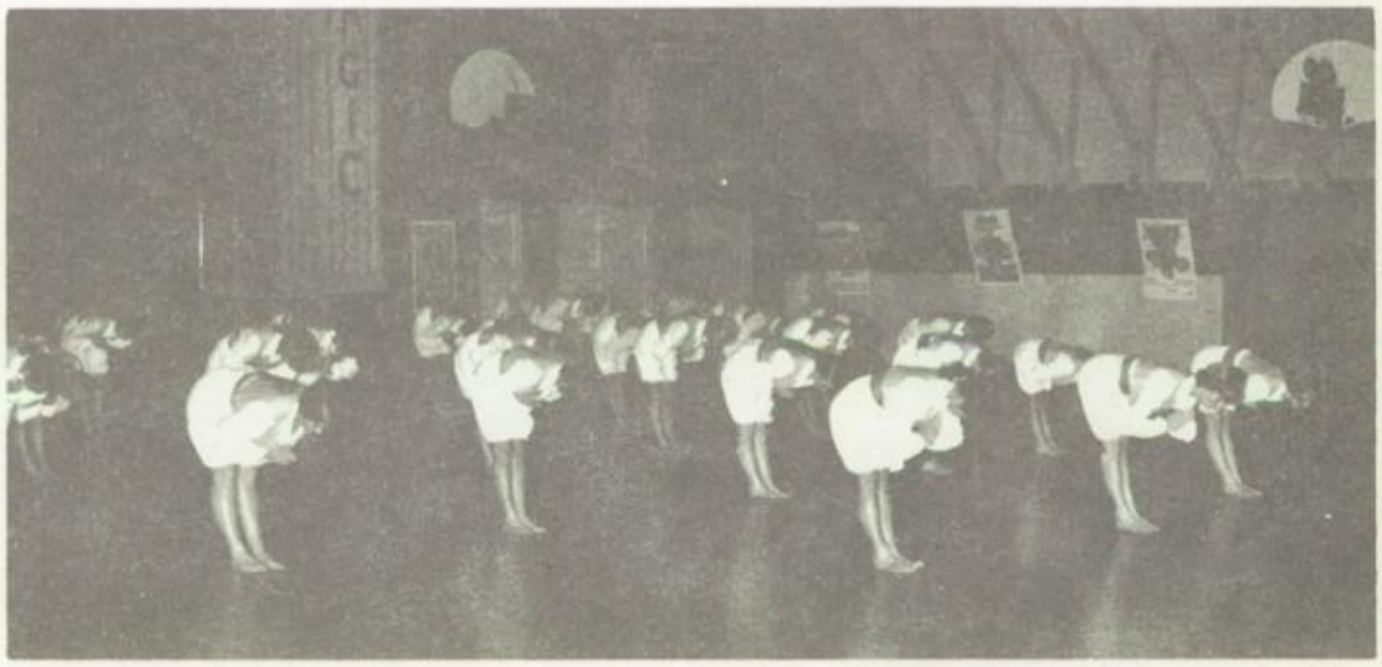
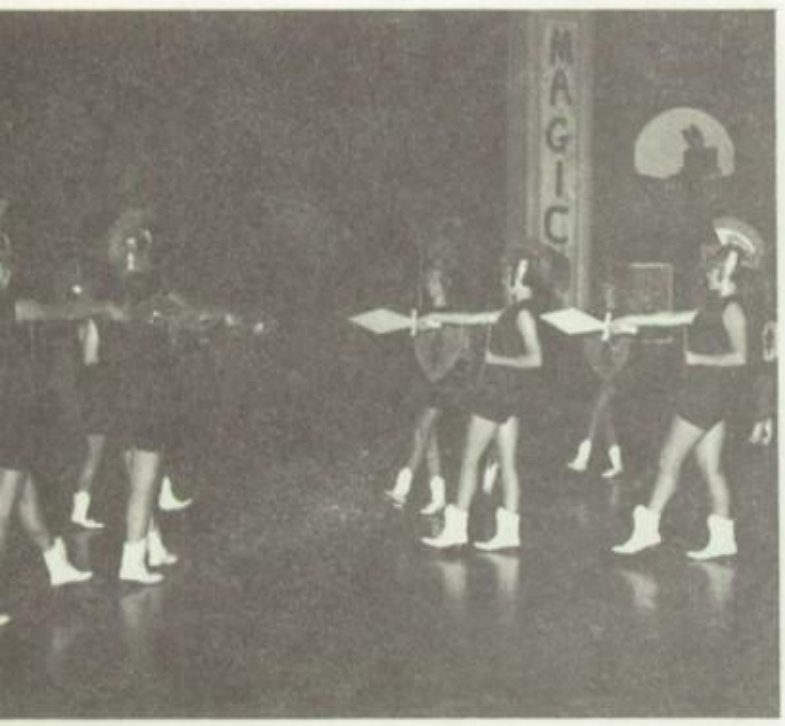
Yearbook Supplement

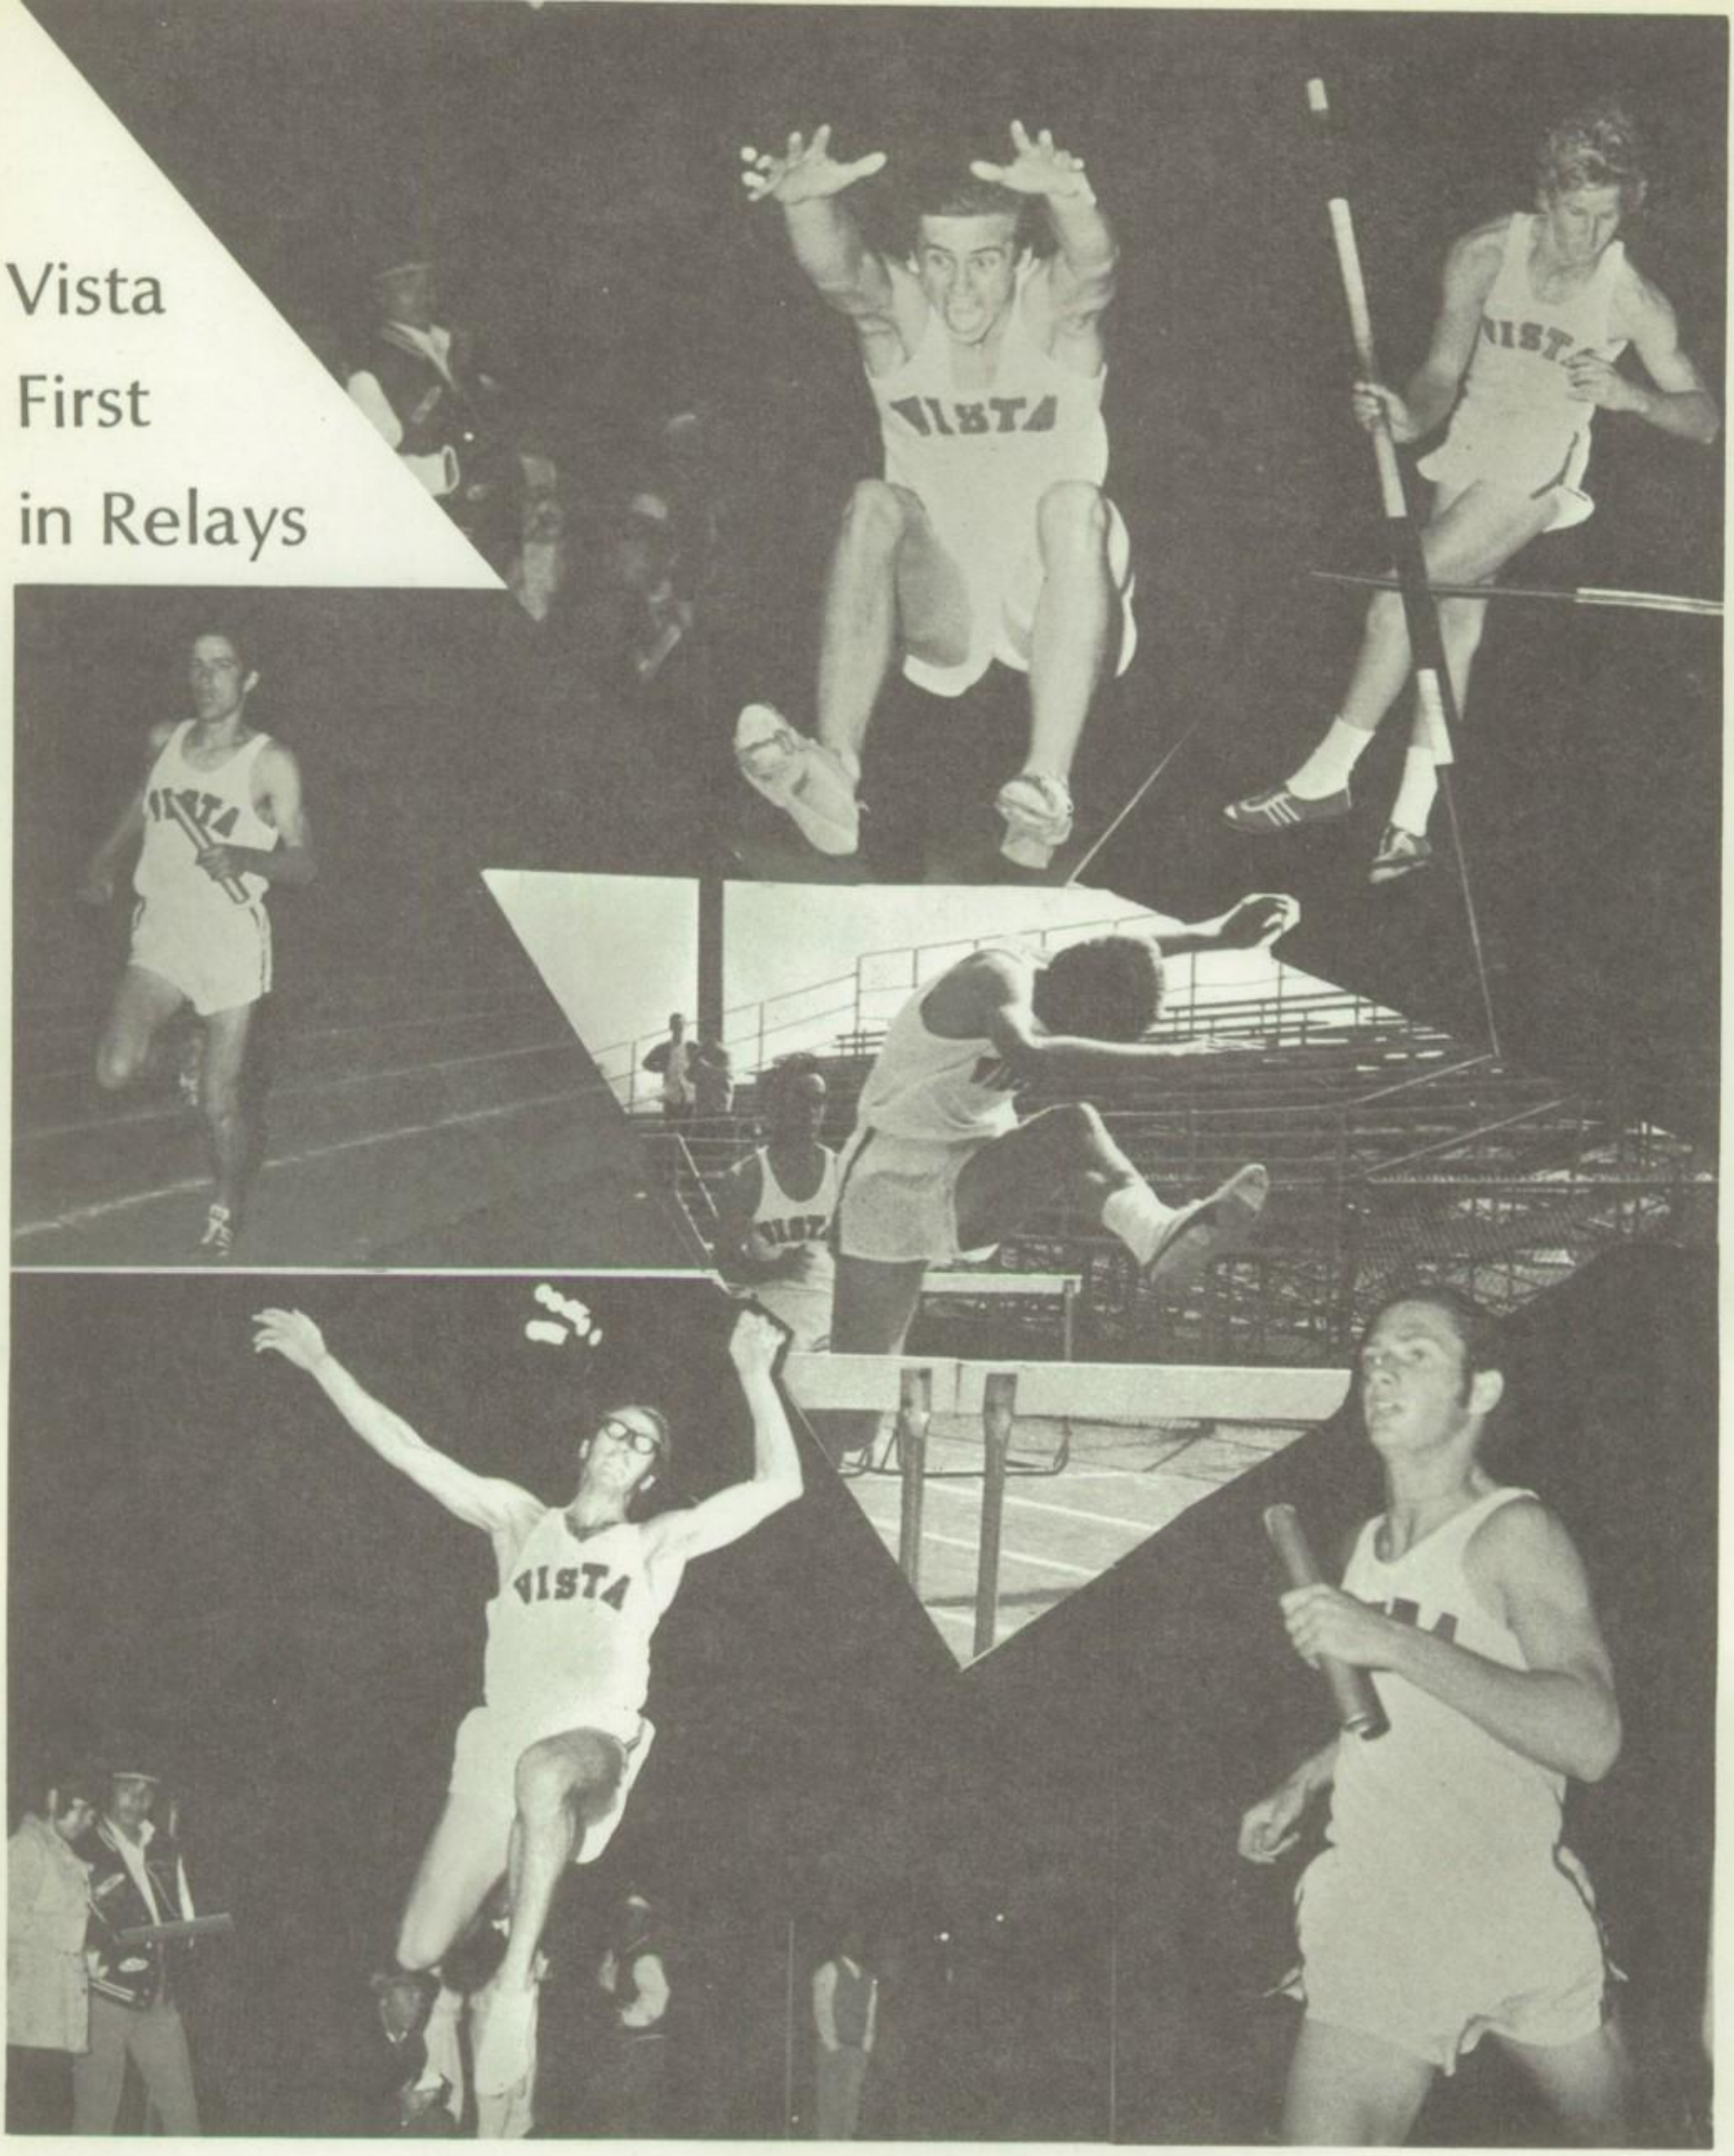
Silhouettes Reel Out

The Silhouettes concluded their year of performances with a show called "Movieland Magic." The show was choreographed and costumed by the girls themselves. New leaders named were Gail Kleinsmith, Corine Klingbeil, Penni Beckman, Susan Hollibaugh, Donna Wells, and Paula Meiners.

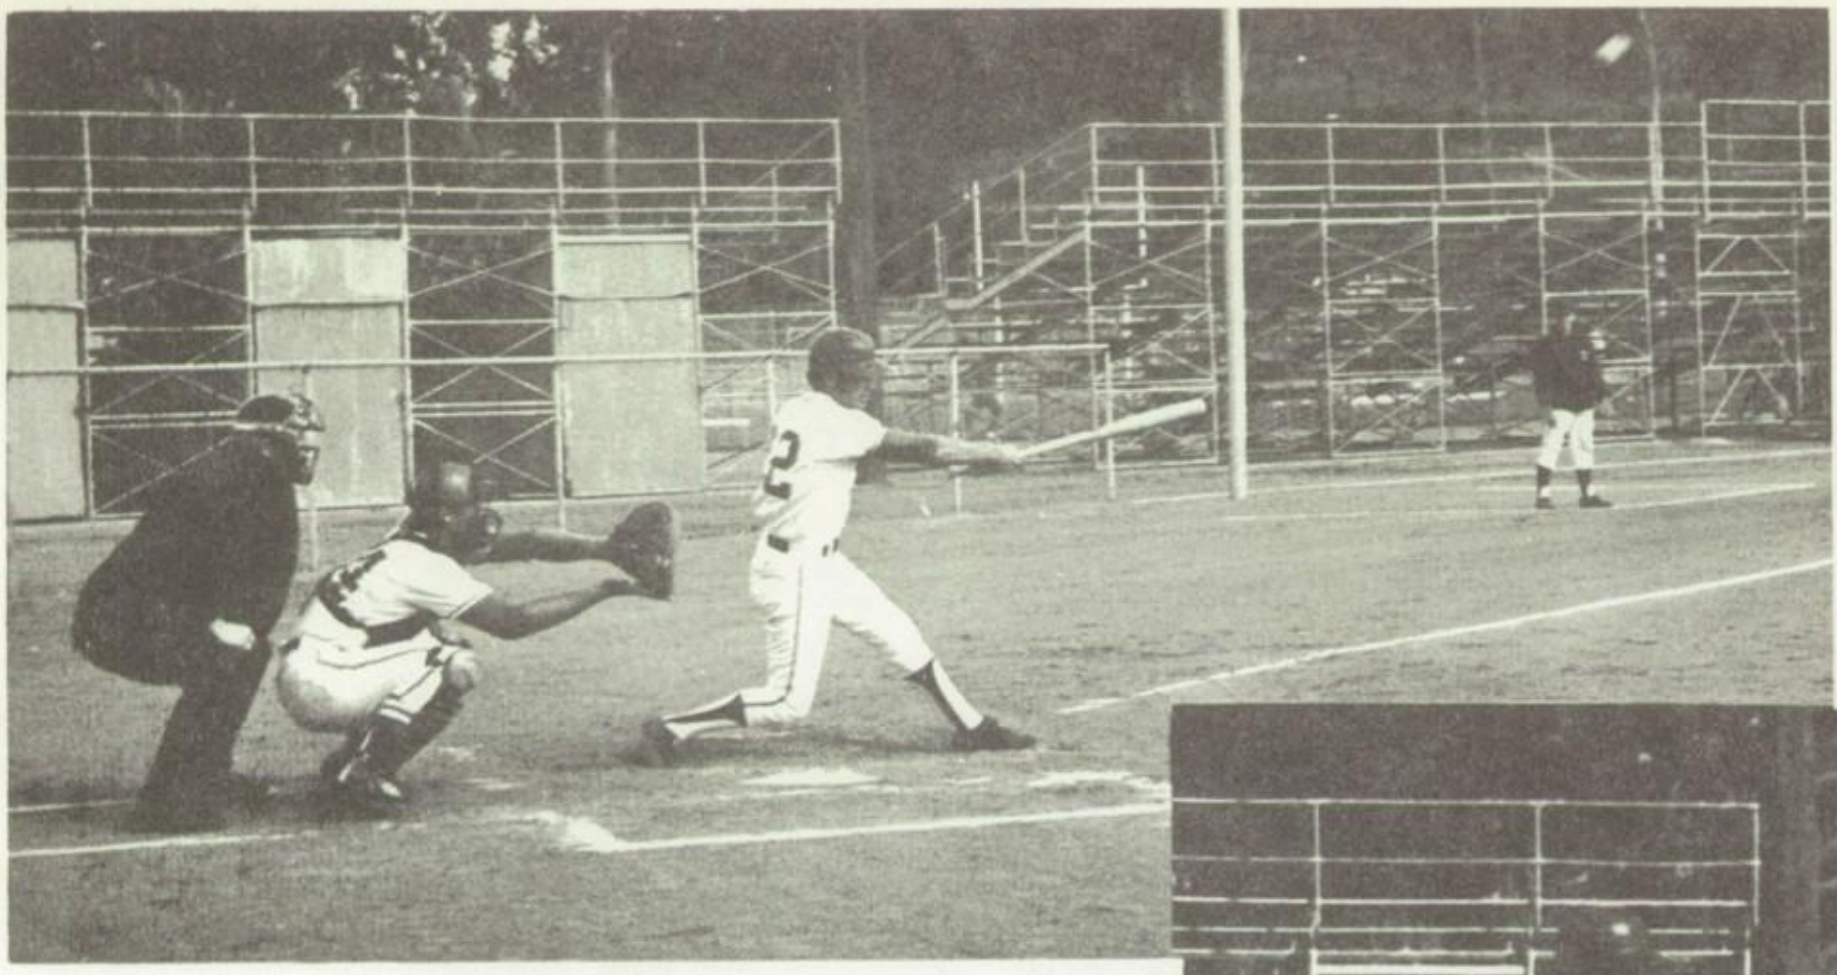




Vista First in Relays



The Vista Relays, which consisted of 20 schools, was not only a very colorful event, but was also a great chance to show the superiority of our track team over the other teams in the North County. Vista led the field with 93 points overall with Oceanside running a close second with 88 points.



The ball flies off Doug Gudmundson's bat as he collects another hit.

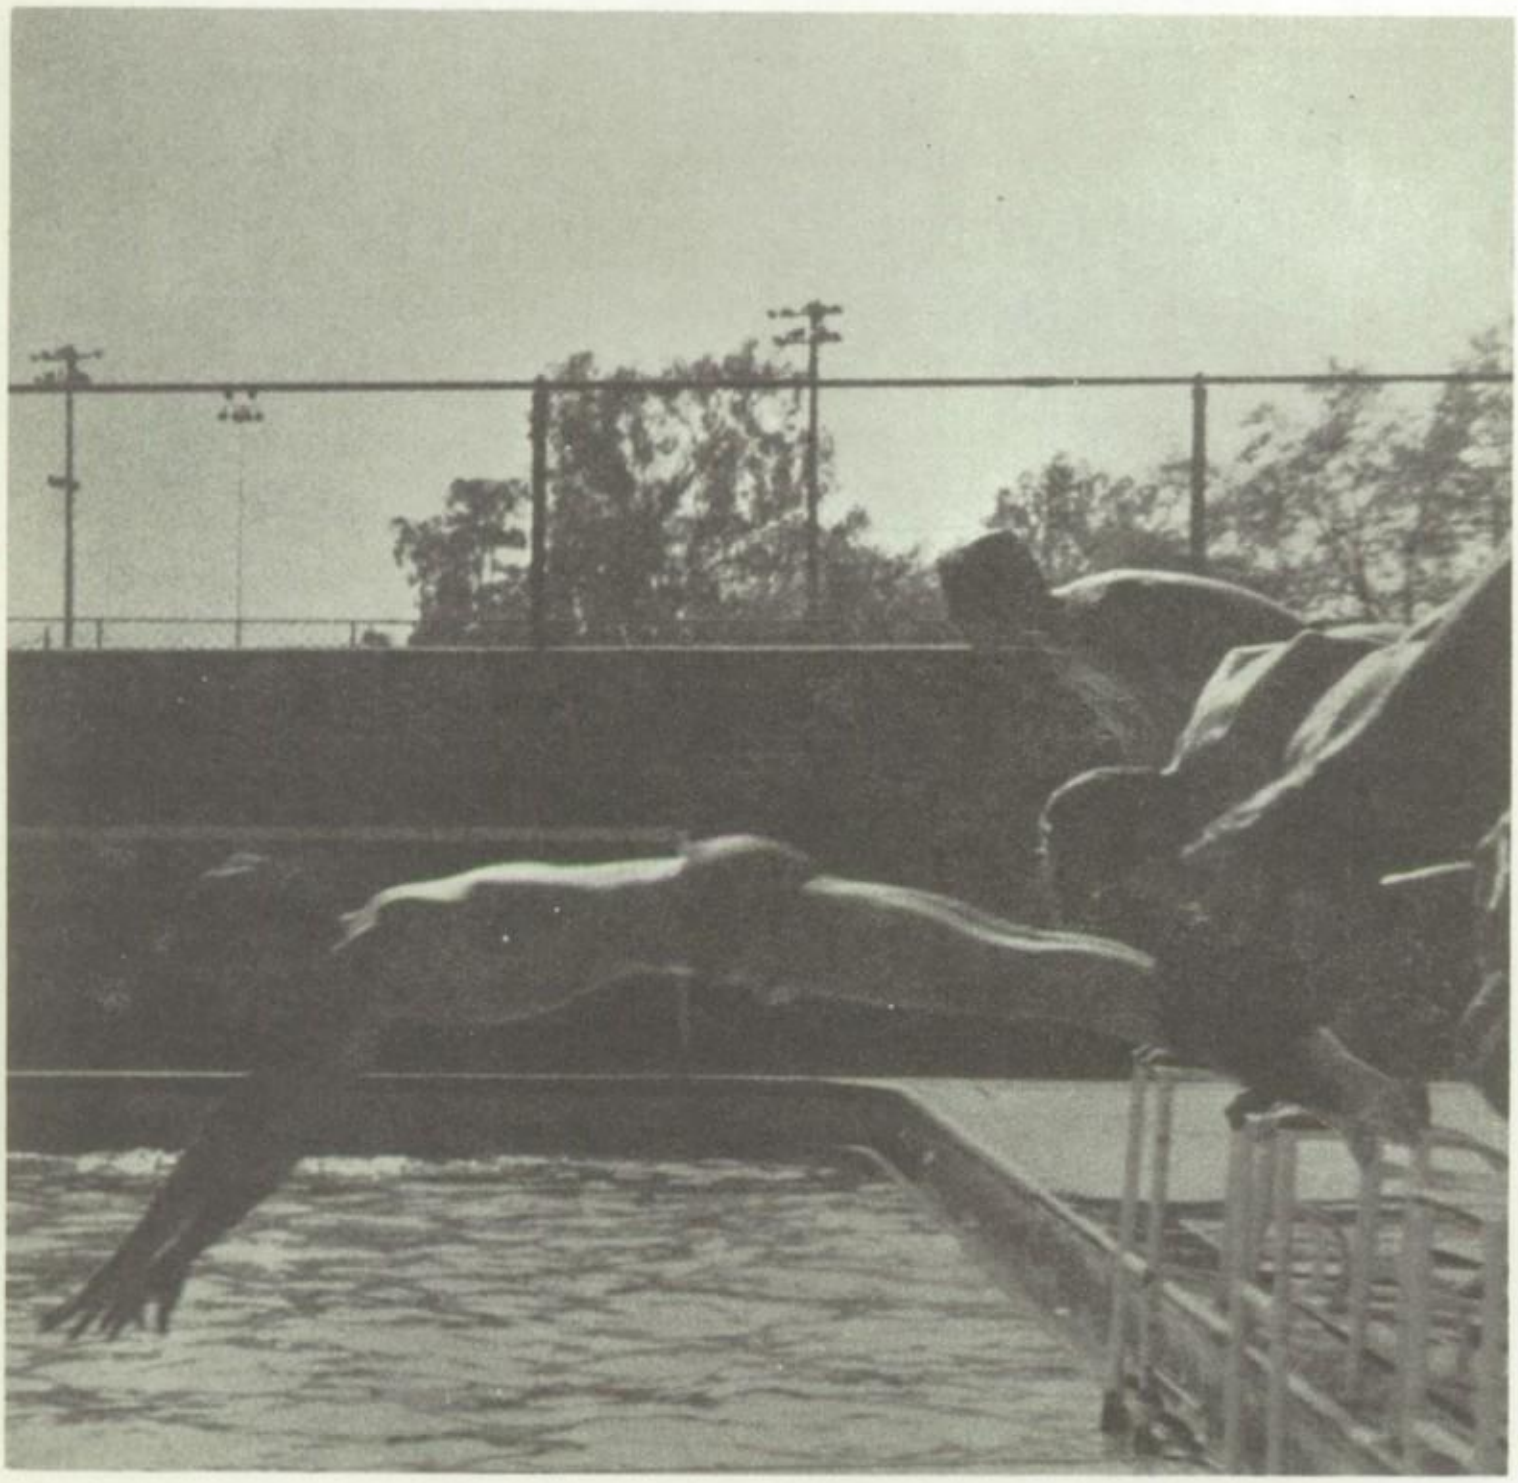
Under the watchful eye of Coach Don Hubbard, and led by two outstanding swimmers, John Nelson and Ted Cole, the Vista Swim Team rolled to a highly successful season.

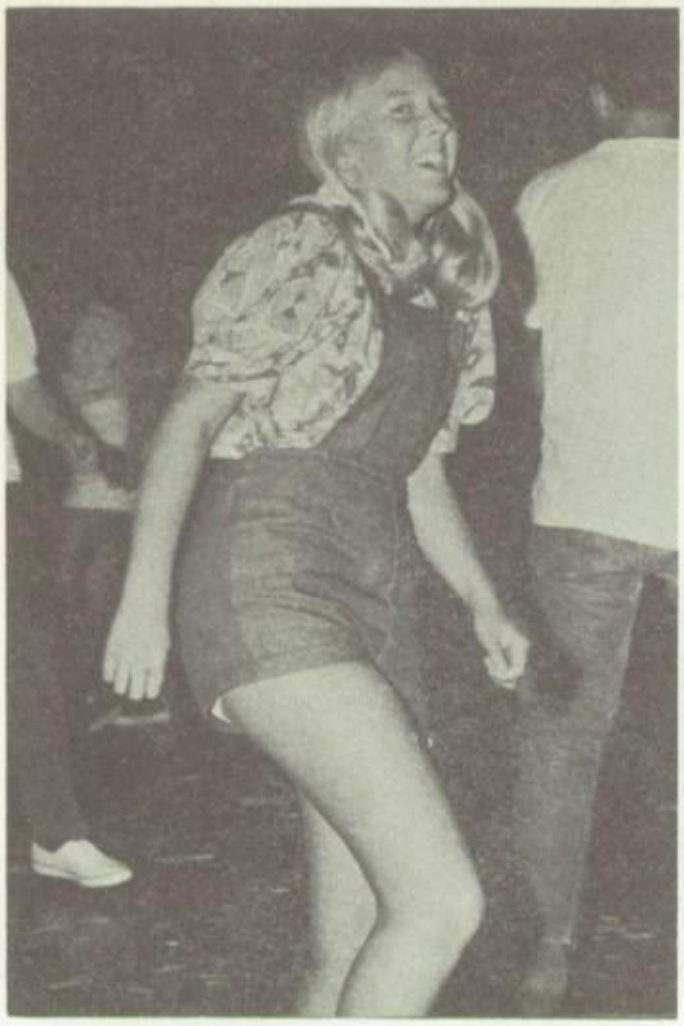
Both Cole and Nelson are strong contenders for top C.I.F. honors. These two were backed up by Jim Frasier and Bill Mickle, and divers Earl Thompson and Dean Collins.

Swimmers Strong in Sprints

Junior Mark Gordon comes up for air in a sprint for first place.



Vern Peltzer gets off a quick start against Escondido.



Oh, if the folks back home could see me now!

The Annual Sadie Hawkins Dance was held on April 24 and sponsored by G.A.A. This dance was meant to resemble the days of Li'l Abner and Daisy Mae.

Candidates anxiously await tabulation of votes.

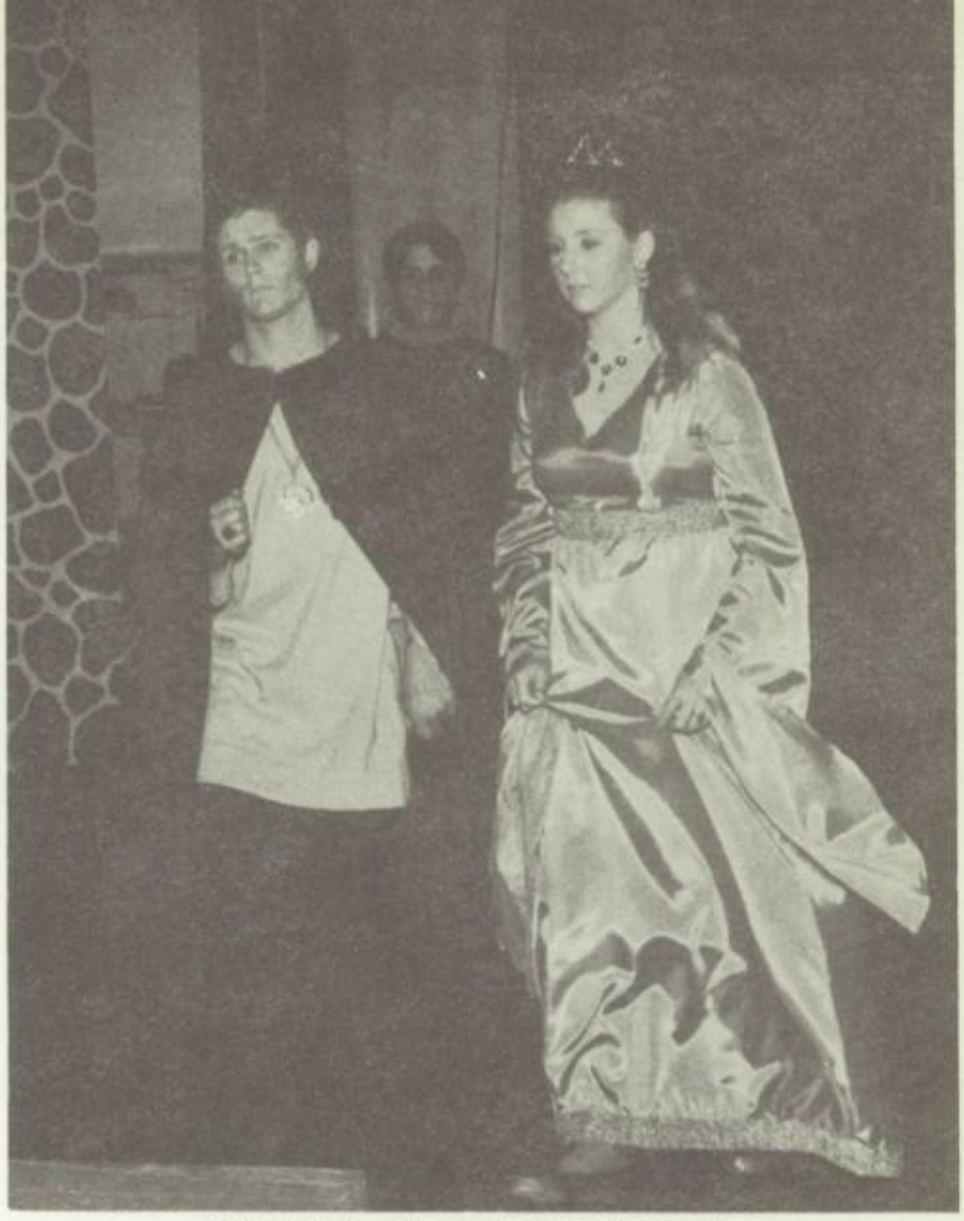
Convention Elects Leaders

The pages and messengers run wild passing notes from state to state.

District Attorney Edwin Miller spoke about crime.

Red Brostrom feels sad as his position goes up for re-election.

The purpose of the A.S.B. Convention is to narrow the field of candidates to two. Keynote speaker at this year's convention was District Attorney Edwin Miller. Delegates, representing the various states and territories, acted as electors. After the certification of the final ballot, the student body elected next year's leaders.



Mike Gehris and Lenelda Lumsden acted as Count and Duchess of Grand Fenwick.

the mouse that roared

This year Vista High presented "The Mouse That Roared", a production written by Leonard Wibberley. The main characters were performed by: John Sowell; Buck Webster; Lenelda Lumsden; Rich Hill; Mike Gehris; and John Mensching. The play was a complete success.

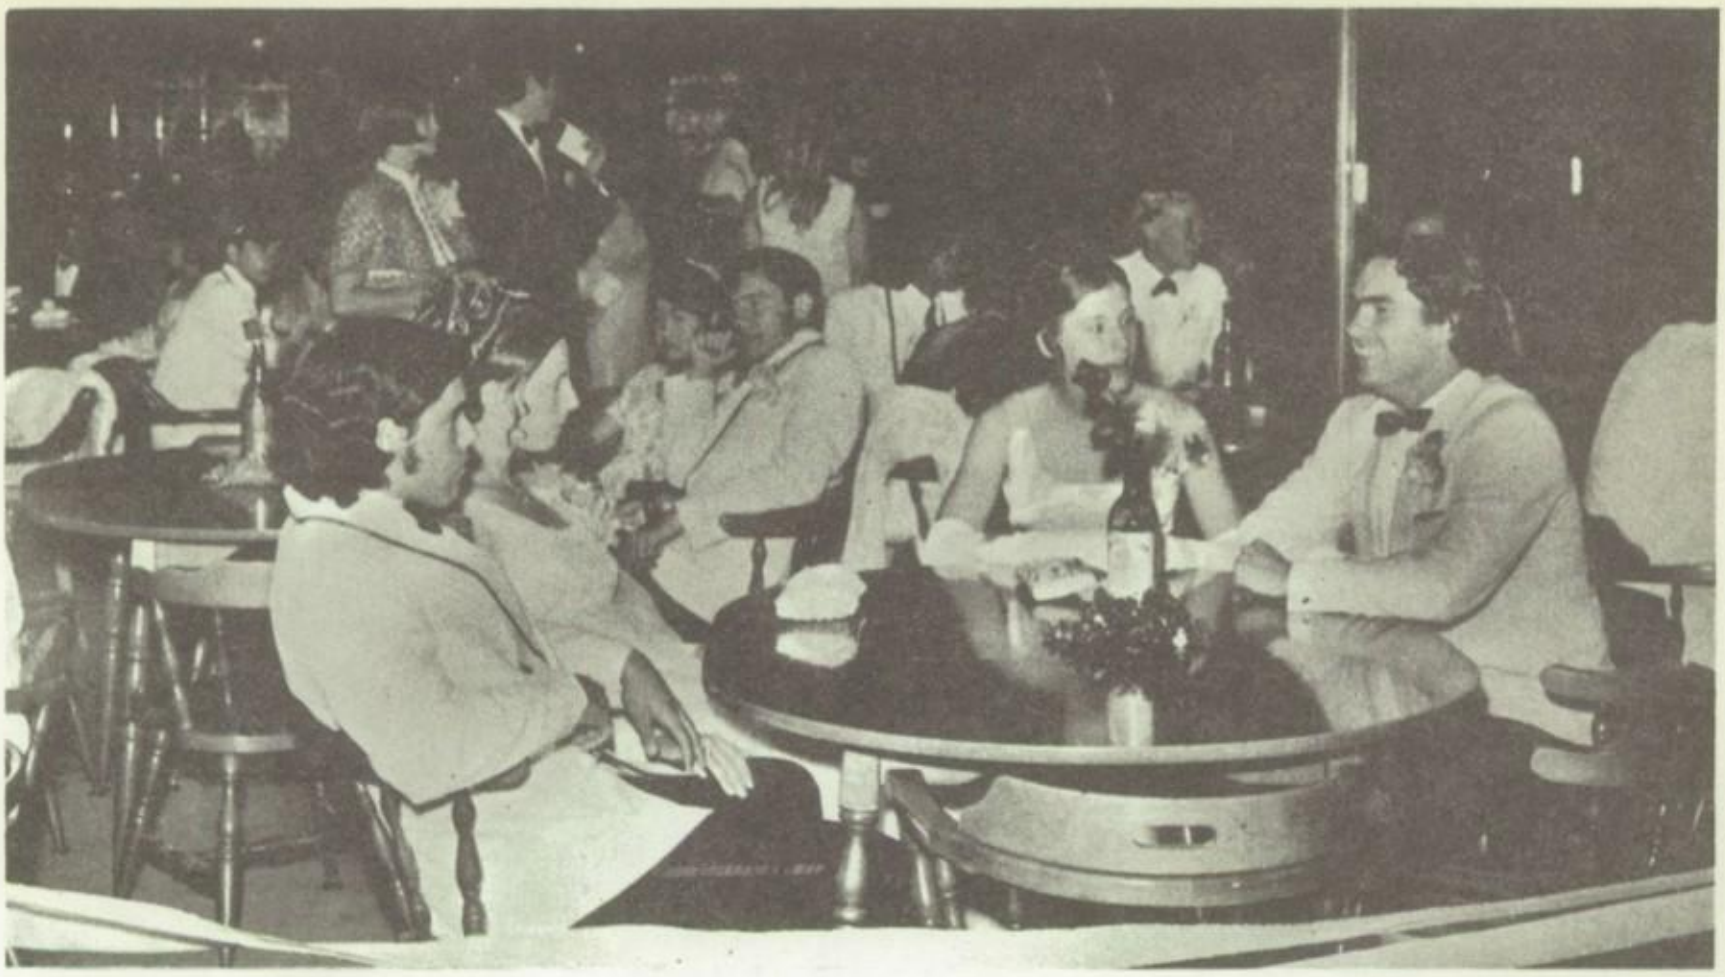
Seniors Shine with Awards

Enrico Tonizzo was honored as our foreign student.

Tony Ardito claims another band award.



Junior-Senior Prom

Dawn McLendon, this year's prom chairman, did an excellent job putting the Junior-Senior Prom together. For the theme the committee chose "The Days of Wine and Roses" and carried it out with paper roses everywhere. Reigning over the prom was Rubie Dominquez and her court, Missy De Matteis, Annette Fiamengo, Jan Krogstad, and Olivia Vosmik.

Seniors unite to get ready for graduation.

To end the year in tradition the senior class held a luncheon. The program was put into effect by vice-president Marji Neuwsma. The event started at 1:00 and all seniors were let out of school early to attend. The meal served consisted of swiss steak, potatoes and vegetables, which kept the juniors busy serving.

Entertainment was provided for by a group called The Revolution. Also a story was narrated by Marji and several students received awards for their tribute to Vista High School.

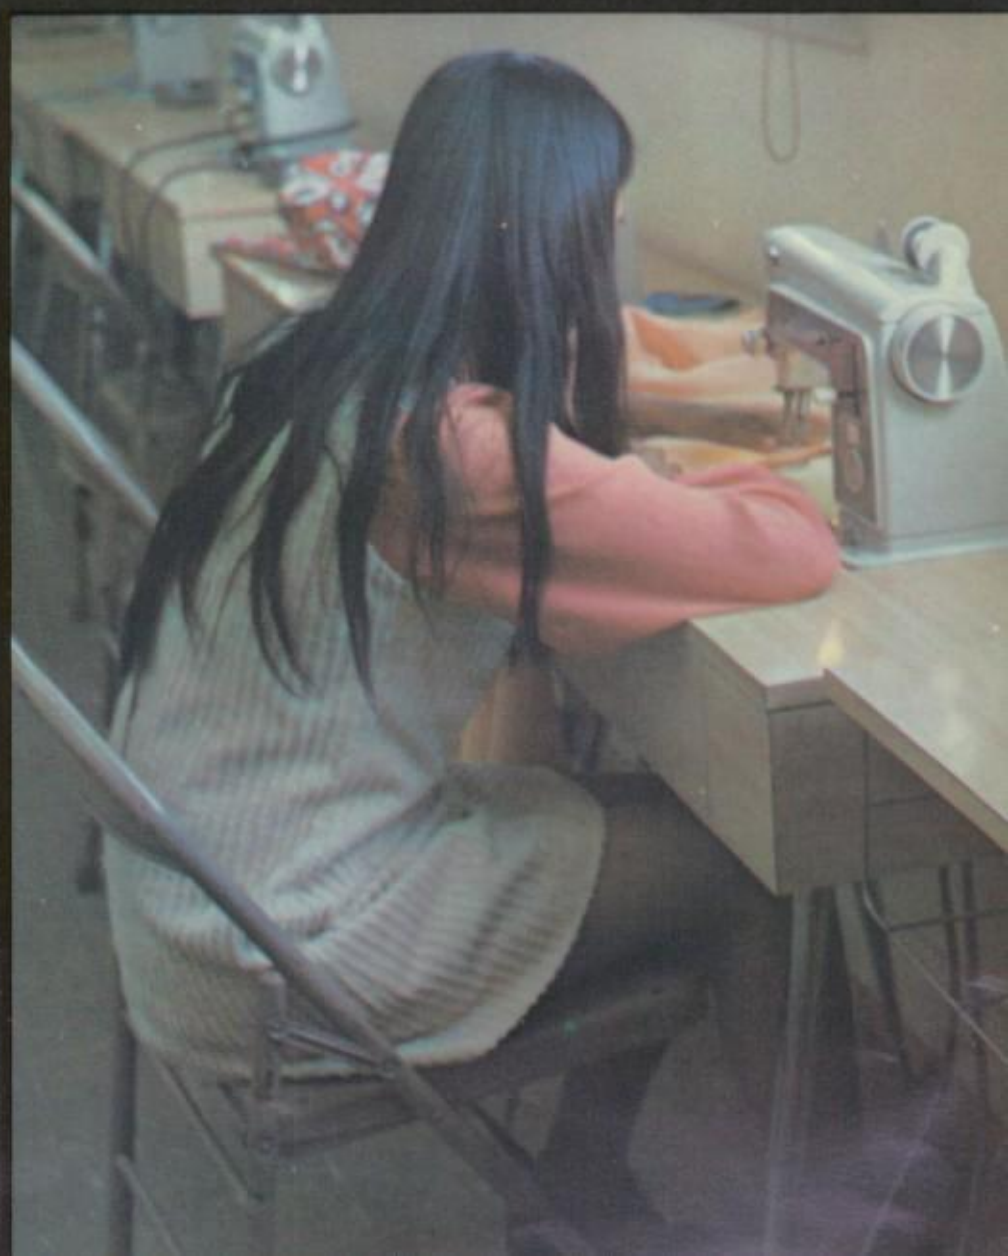
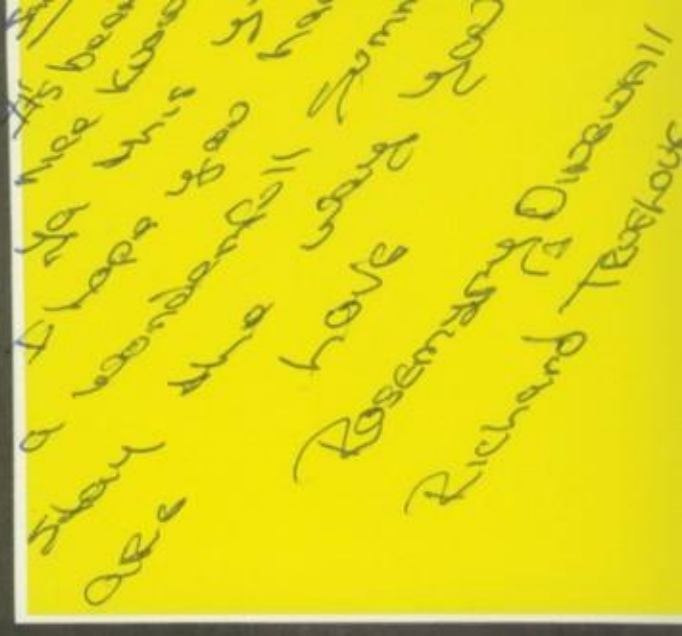
Take Time



Throughout the years, the life of a teenage student has been hectic—rushing here and there trying to finish up homework before it's due. This year at Vista High has been no exception. With so many activities and club meetings, it's often hard to find time to be alone or do something for yourself. La Revista 1970 suggests that each student take time to be alone with himself: to relax, sew, eat, study, or just to think. It can be great to find your own peace of mind.

For Yourself



Take Time for Others

Sandy
It's been a great growing year, and you this year, and I wish you all the luck in the world.
Gloria DeLong
Mighty Class of "71"

It seems as if today willingness to help and friendliness are rare. People are too busy climbing social ladders or worrying about grades to really notice the people around them. A student has many chances to lend a hand or be a friend to someone, but usually they shrug it off, not wanting to get "involved." Being with friends or helping someone can be a rewarding experience, whether it lasts for only a little while or a lifetime. It's surprising how good one can feel if he takes time for others.

Take Time

High school years go by fast; and because they do, students should treasure them. This year was packed full of activities, sports, organizations. Now is the time to get involved in things that are happening around you: clubs, activities, people. Now is the time to show your school spirit because never again will you have the opportunity. Make the most of your high school years while you can.

1971 Dedication: Mr. Duane Barnes

Mr. Barnes was a member of the basketball team at Palomar College, making quite a name for himself there by being selected for the Hall of Fame for his outstanding performances. After he began his teaching career at V.H.S., he accepted the responsibility of coaching the Varsity team here. The Panthers, under Mr. Barnes' direction, have enjoyed many winning seasons. Shown here are some typical expressions of Coach Barnes.

Mr. Duane Barnes is an alumnus of Vista High. After graduating, he attended Palomar Junior College and then received his B.A. from Cal-Western. Mr. Barnes has been teaching U.S. and World History at Vista High for the past six years. He is one of the most respected and well-liked teachers on campus. La Revista 1971 is dedicated to Mr. Duane Barnes.

Our Staff Does Great Work

Mrs. Eleanor Davison, Mrs. Peggy Ogletree, Mrs. Dorothy Sikorski, Mrs. Beverly Taylor and Mrs. Pat Johnson are all very serious about their jobs as secretaries.

This is our Janitor staff, Howard Walston, Kenneth Belden, Francis Golumb, Cleatus Hamilton, Michael Krestel, Valian Mortenson, Gene Olson, William Rucker and William Schilb.

What was that you said came next? Mrs. Paula Foster is a new librarian this year at V.H.S. Mrs. Kay Cutchin has been a librarian at V.H.S. for five years.

Colleen Patrick tries to sneak a look at her health record as Mrs. Yvonne Miller, our school nurse, checks it out.

Dear Sandy,
As you leave Vista High this year, may you have success in your chosen career. I've been glad to know you + have you as a member in our Health Careers Club
[illegible]

Our Cafeteria staff Barbara Henry, Lena Smith, Juanita DeWilde, Mary Litchenberger, Luella Linn, Ruby Green and Pat Jordon try hard to please the students at V.H.S.

Hope everything in the future turns out the way you want it to. Best of everything

Art and Home Ec.

Bring Out Creativity

Mrs. Eleanor Gillespi, or Mrs. G. as her students know her, discusses how the Art Department will be run this year with her co-teachers, Mrs. Sondra LaBerge and Mrs. Brenda Davis.

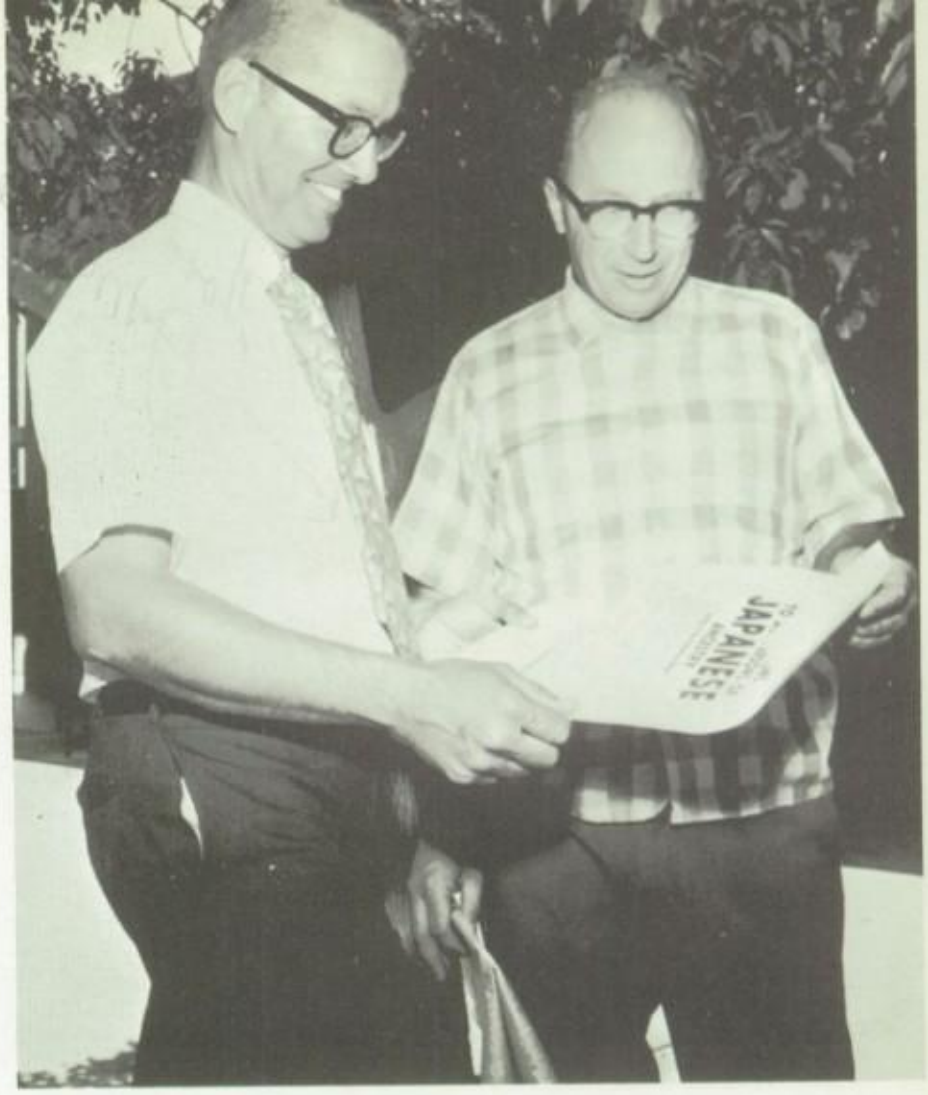
Making homemakers of the girls was the past Vista High School policy, but this year under Mrs. Betty Bundy's instruction we are now making homemakers out of the boys at V.H.S. Our other homemaking teachers are Mrs. Helen Christensen and Mrs. Miriam Sherrard.

Better Business Bureau

Miss Hisae Shima is apparently telling Mr. John Madsen and Mr. George King a funny story, as Mrs. Inez Hathaway and Mr. bert Wheeler exchange pleasantries.

Mrs. Barbara Chaddock gives careful instruction to an interested student.

From the Past to the Future Through History and Government



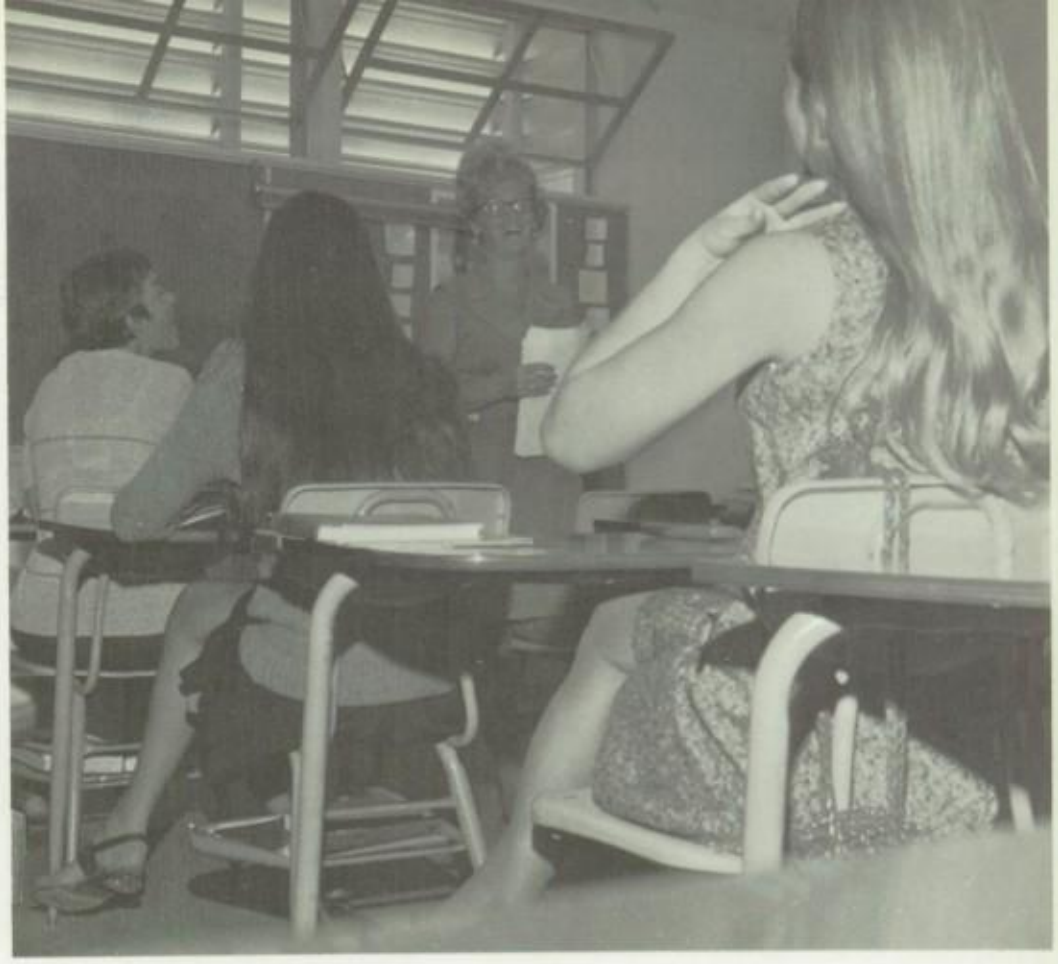
Long time government teachers Mr. Richmond Ramage and Mr. Donald Meyer plan expenses for a transfer to Japan.

Mr. Robert Steckman, seated, gives instructions to several other faculty members. They are from left: Mr. Lester Barnes, Mr. Marshall Haaland, Mr. Fernando Martinez, and Mr. Dennis Garrahy. Are they planning an underground U.S.History movement?

"It must be the water!" exclaims Mr. Donald Hubbard to Mr. James Downs. Both athletic coaches have been teaching for "many moons".

This is Mrs. Ellen Kelly's first year at V.H.S. as a government teacher and Miss Suzanne Grant's third year. Miss Suzanne Grant is also in charge of Model United Nations.

Mr. Walton Crymes has been teaching at V. H.S. for eleven years. In the previous years he was vice-principal and a history and government teacher. Miss LoAnn DePuy teaches history.



"Well, I finally caught you in the act," laughs Mrs. Rose Doyle.

Determination Brings

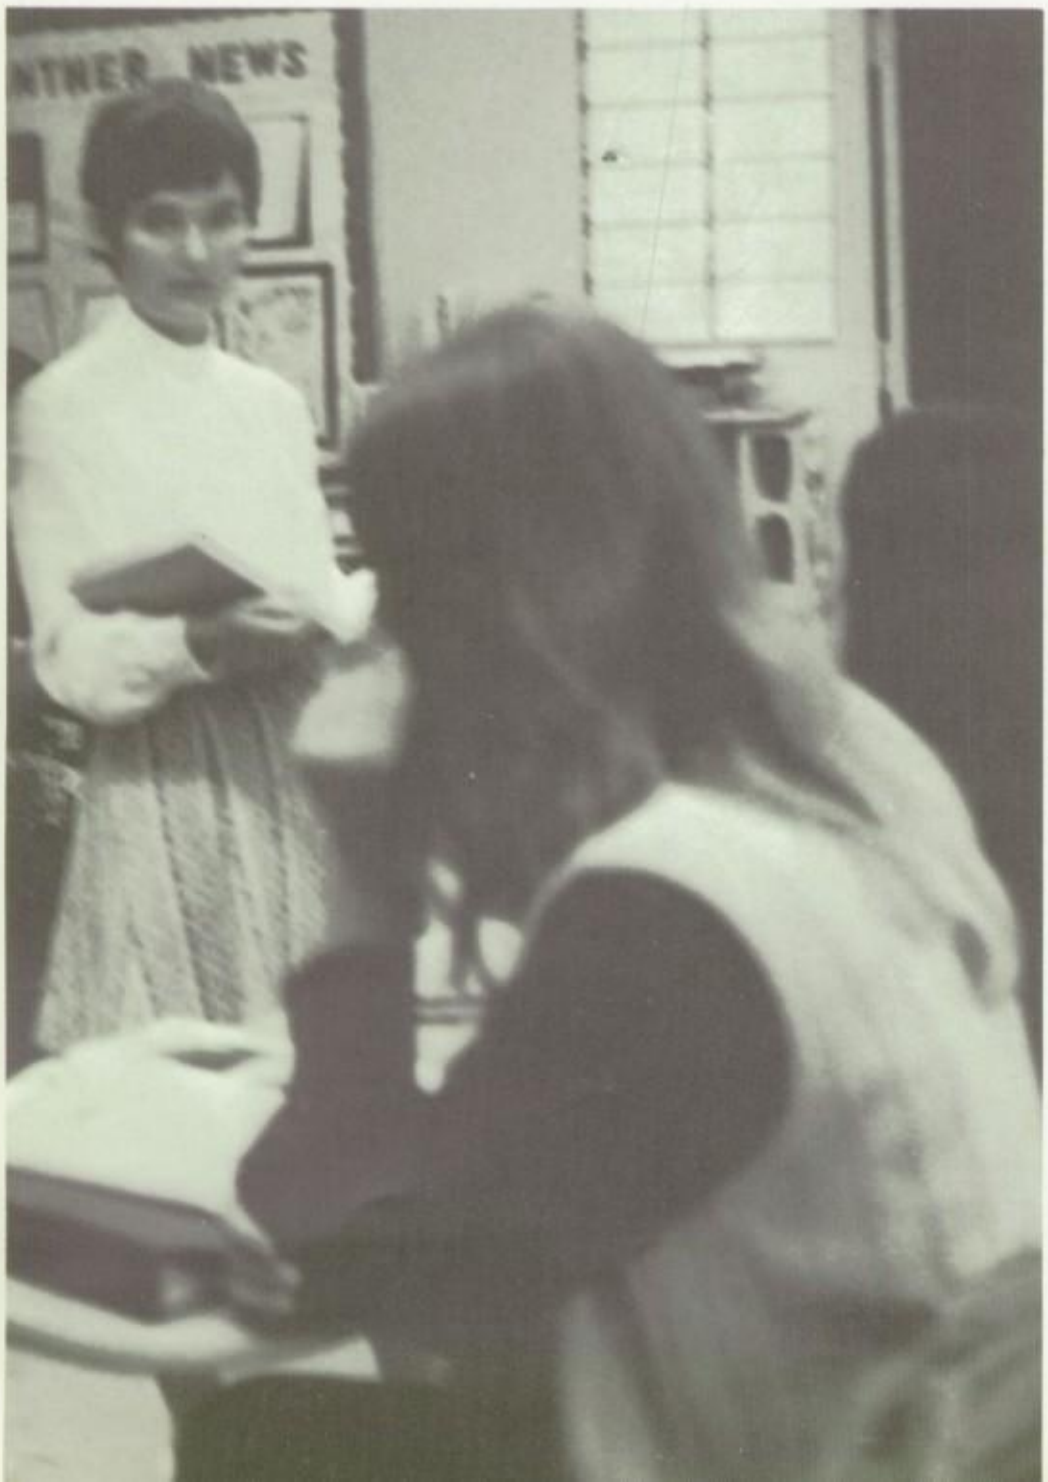
Out Communication



Sandy,
Well it's been one long, fantastic year, but I'm sorry to see it pass. Much love future as I know that you always remember:
"make your reach farther than your grasp." Browning
May God Bless and keep you always,

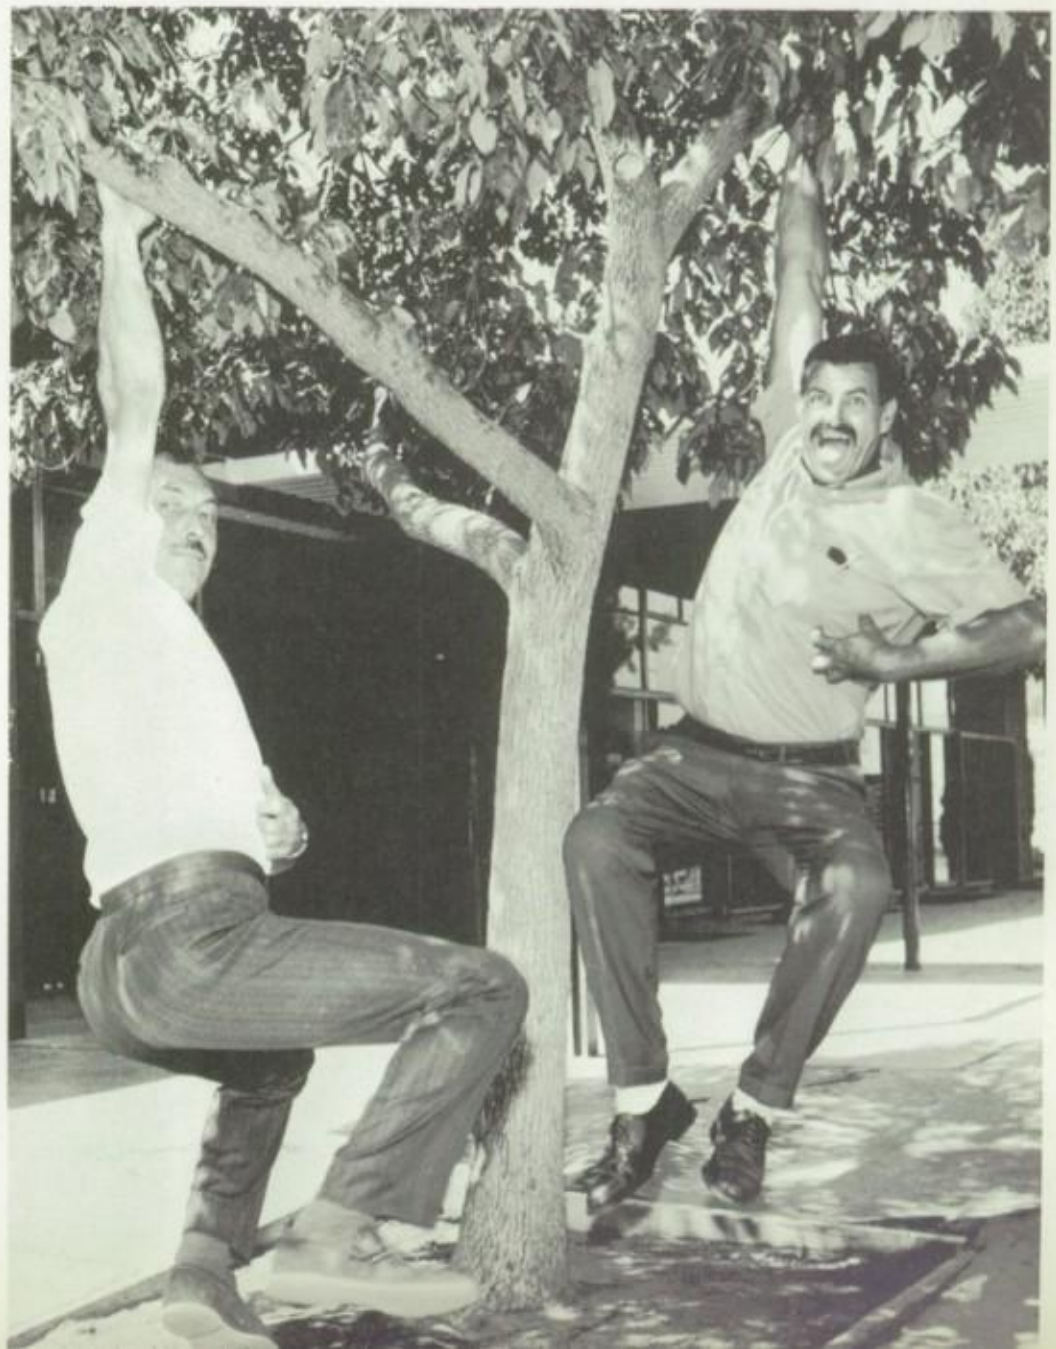
Starting the day with a smile is the motto of Mr. Robert Workman, Mr. Henry Landis and Mr. Gary Rath.

It appears that Mr. James Holland and Mr. Waco Hill had a swinging time this year.

Industrial Arts Helps to Build a Foundation



Math Adds up Two . . .

Mr. Robert Kidder, Mr. Patrick Murphy, Mrs. Polly Willard, Mrs. Eunice Fraley, and Mr. Donald Starchman highly suggest that next year Tarzan build a treehouse.

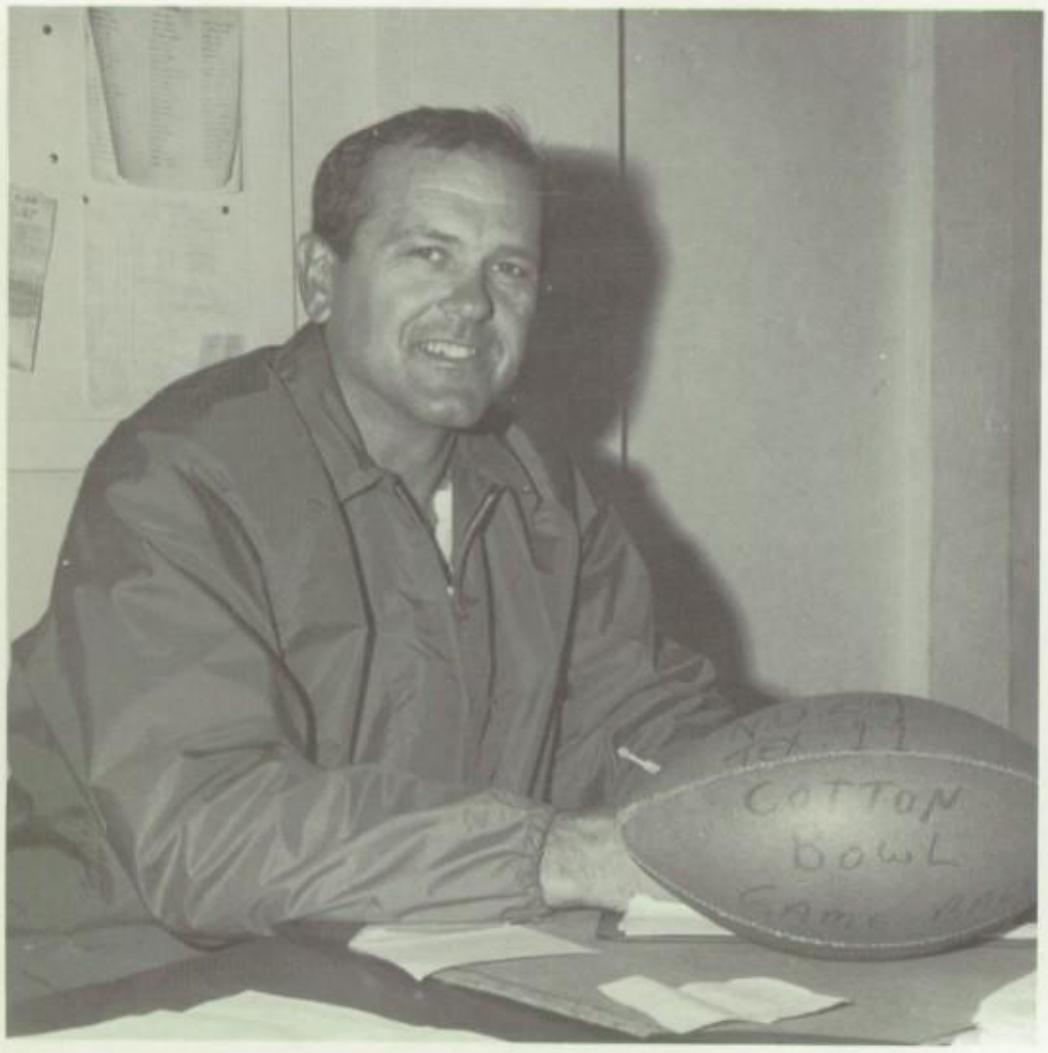
Mrs. Dianna Downey, Miss Beatrice Miller, Mrs. Denise Picchiottino and Mrs. Ann Geissinger all are thinking what an easy year it's going to be after looking at a list for the TA 's.

This is Miss Beatrice Miller's first year at VHS. She is an advisor for the JV cheerleaders.

Physical Education Builds Strong Bodies Twelve Ways

Sandy,
Best of luck in all your endeavors. I've enjoyed you in 4th period P.E. Always smile and look for the positive, bright side of things.
Diane Stadd
(Mom)

"Is that right?" smiles Mr. Richard Haines. This is his first year at VHS as PE teacher and varsity football coach.

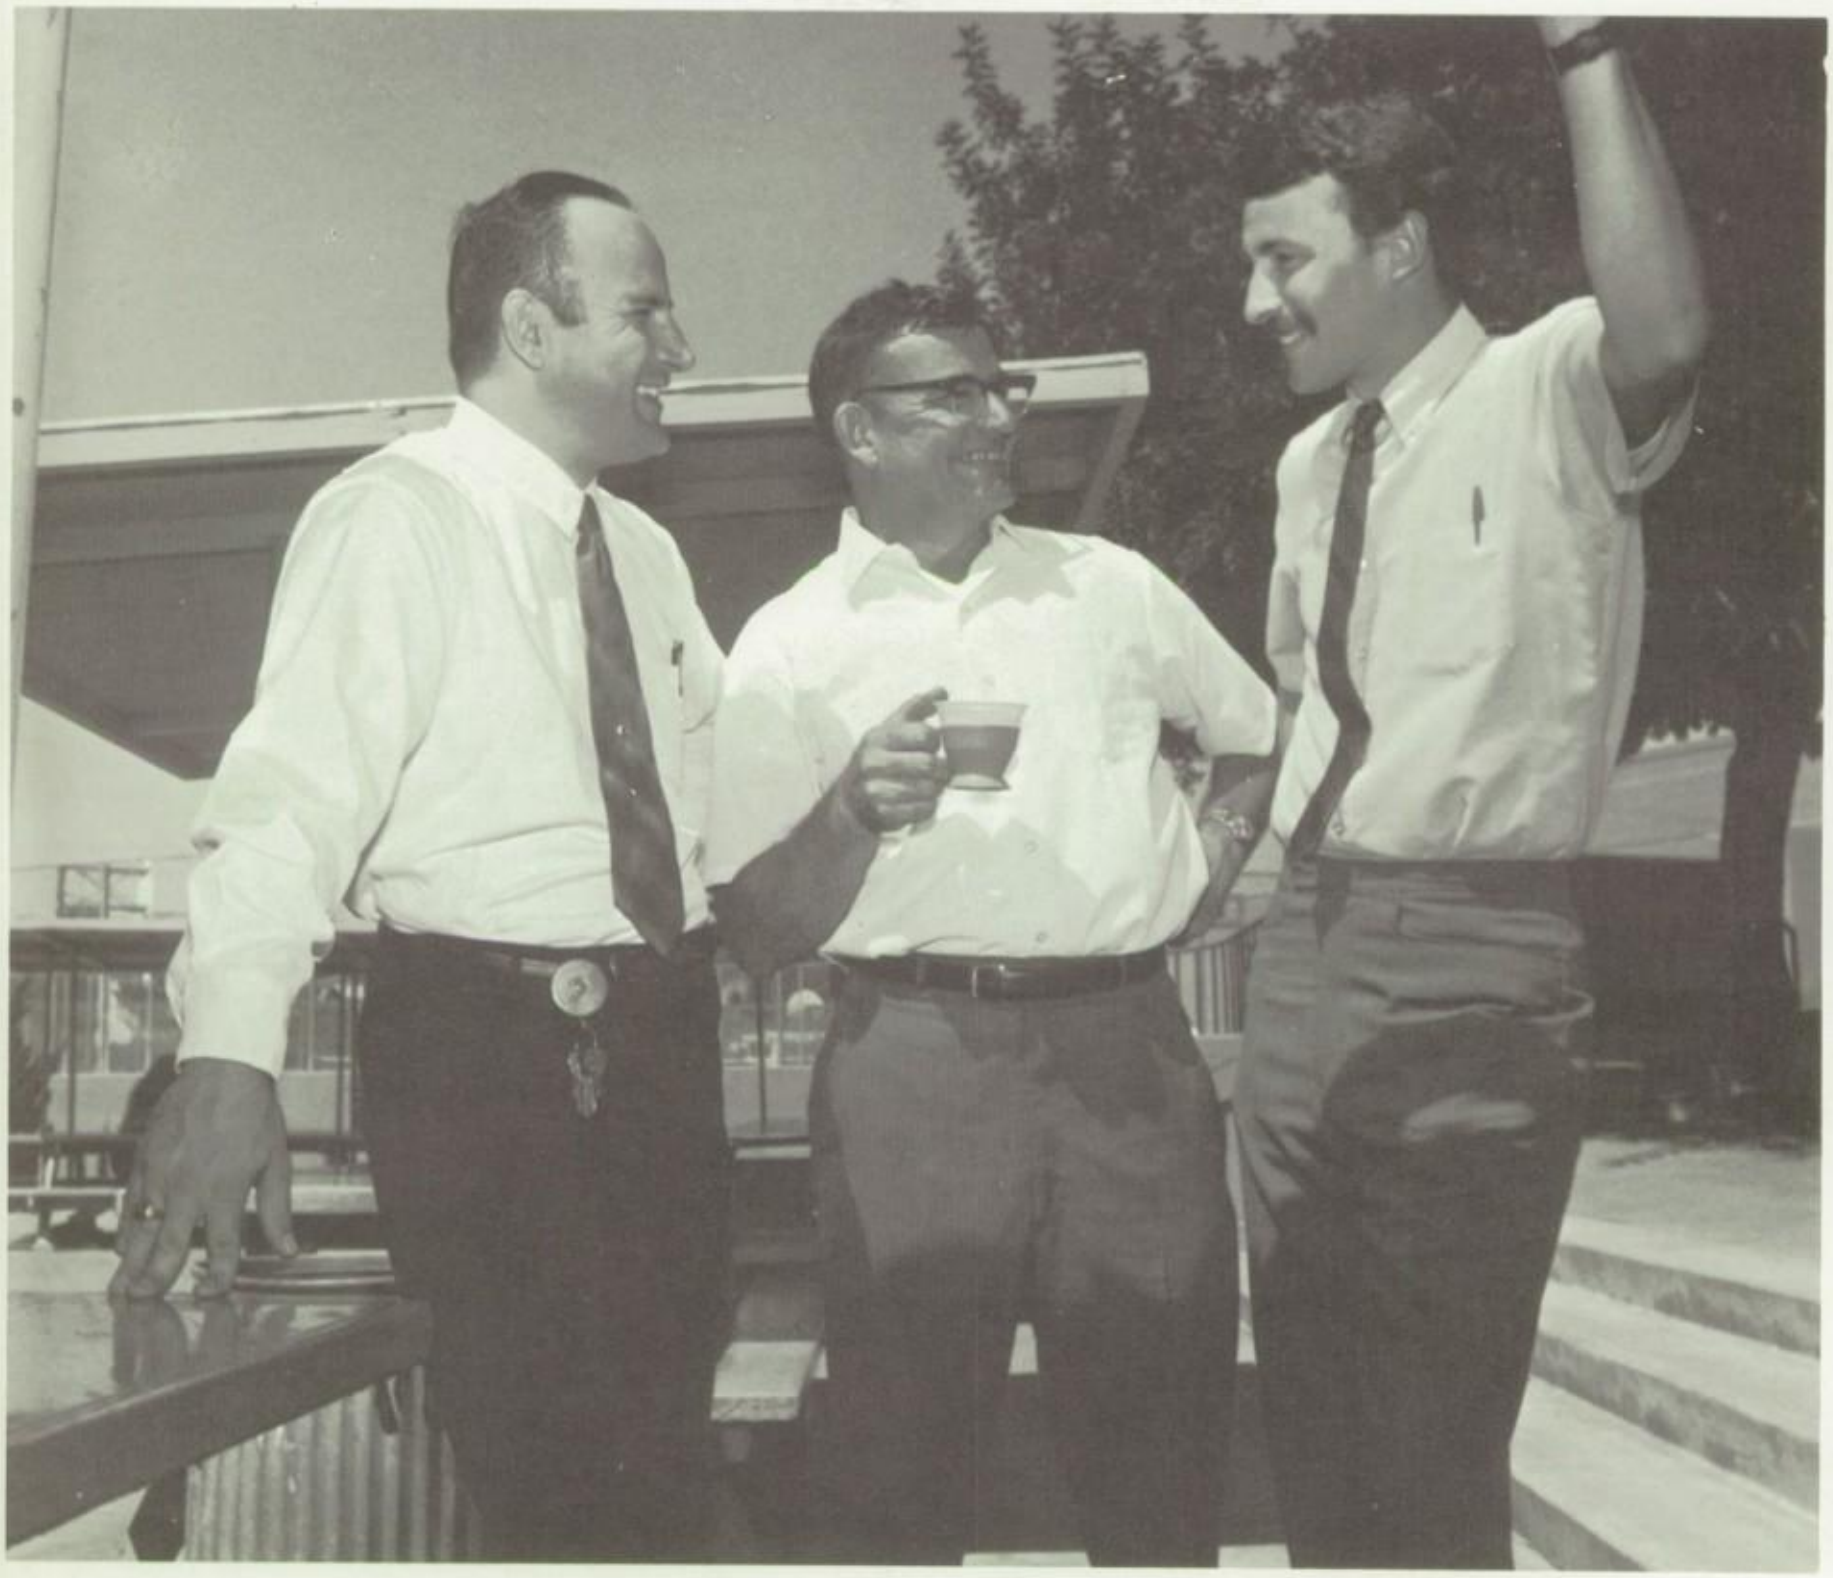


Mr. Steve Kocheran dreams about the day he will play in the Cotton Bowl.

Mr. Patrick Mongoven is one of our PE teachers and is a golf and wrestling coach.

Music, the Universal Language.

Mr. Donald Bursvold tells Mr. Donald Lauder of his plans for the chorus girls to go on the road next fall.



Mr. Warren Hawkins comments to his fellow workers Mr. Dennis Madison and Mr. Eugene Mielcarek, "What's so funny about me coaching tennis?"

Science. . .
Is the Ways and Means to Discovery

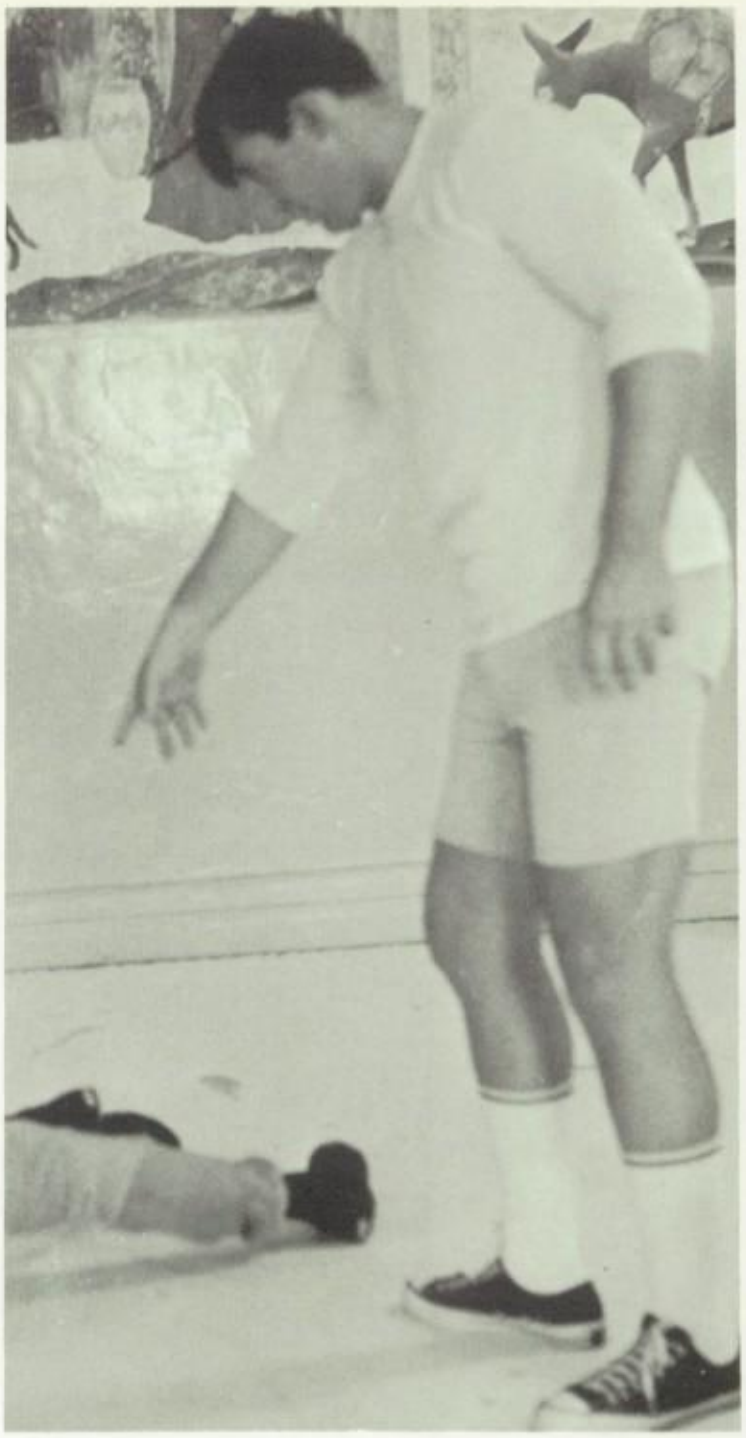
"You've got to be joking!" seems to be the sentiments of Mr. Gary Schultz, who was this year's study hall advisor.

Study Hall and Special Education Take Great Patience

By the expression on Mr. William Stafford's face, we wonder if those pictures are really in a VHS textbook? Mr. Stafford works in the learning disabilities department.

Two new teachers in special education this year were Mr. Dennis Williams and Mrs. Dorotha Cole.

The rumor is that Mr. David Parks, who is still trying to figure out how the juniors lost Powderpuff, has not been asked to help coach next year's senior girls. He did succeed in coaching Varsity football.



Mr. John Paris, who was one of the assistant Varsity football coaches and J.V. wrestling coach, seems to be making sure that Mr. Garry Prather does his work.

Completing his first year at Vista High, is Mr. Garry Prather, who coached J.V. football and who also taught Plane Geometry and Algebra.

Activities

Homecoming 1970 was accented with the dawning of a new era at Vista High, which provided this year's theme. The annual week of spirit was filled with different dress-up days and the varsity slave sale.

On Friday night of the victorious football game, the floats were exhibited and judged, with the junior class winning first place. During half time the Homecoming Queen and her court were presented.

The week was topped off the next night with the traditional Homecoming dance with music provided by Sound Project.

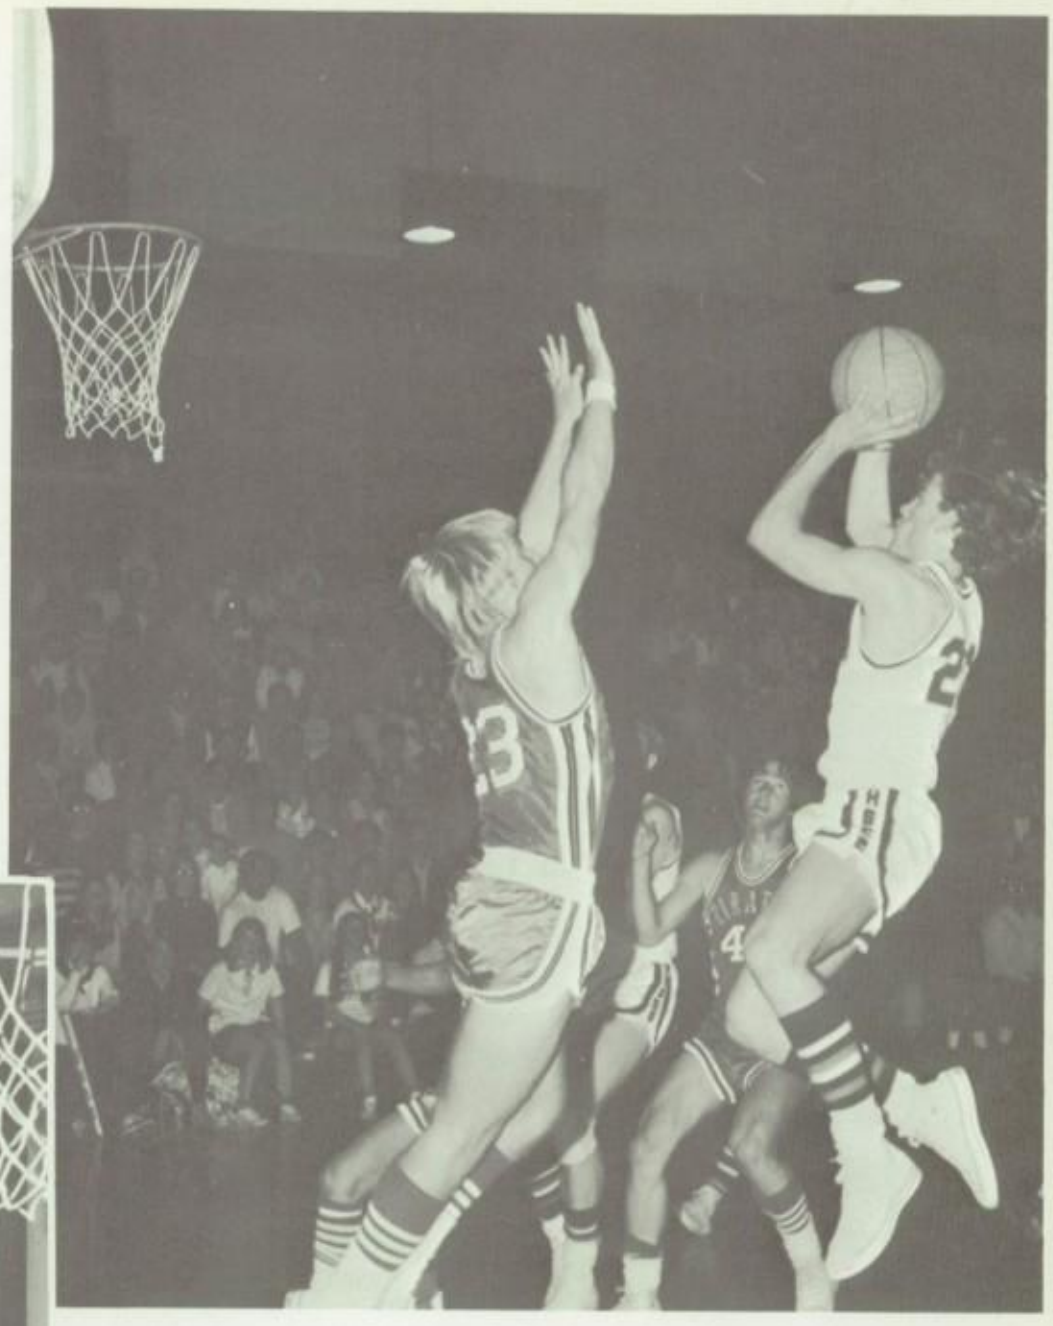
Senior John Crombach takes a short jump shot as Ross White moves in to rebound.

Once again Coach Duane Barnes molded a fine team to represent Vista High. The cagers started slow but when League started, the Panthers were ready. Led by Dave Brostrom and Brad Gerken the Panthers had to go against bigger teams. They used tough defense and a quick fast break to defeat their foes. Senior Wes Reiliy and Juniors Mike Kraatz and Doug Gudmundson anchored the second place cagers. Going into the last few games the flu hit some of the players and Poway pulled up to tie Vista. Facing a rough Lincoln team in the playoffs, the Panthers fought hard but lost 60-45.

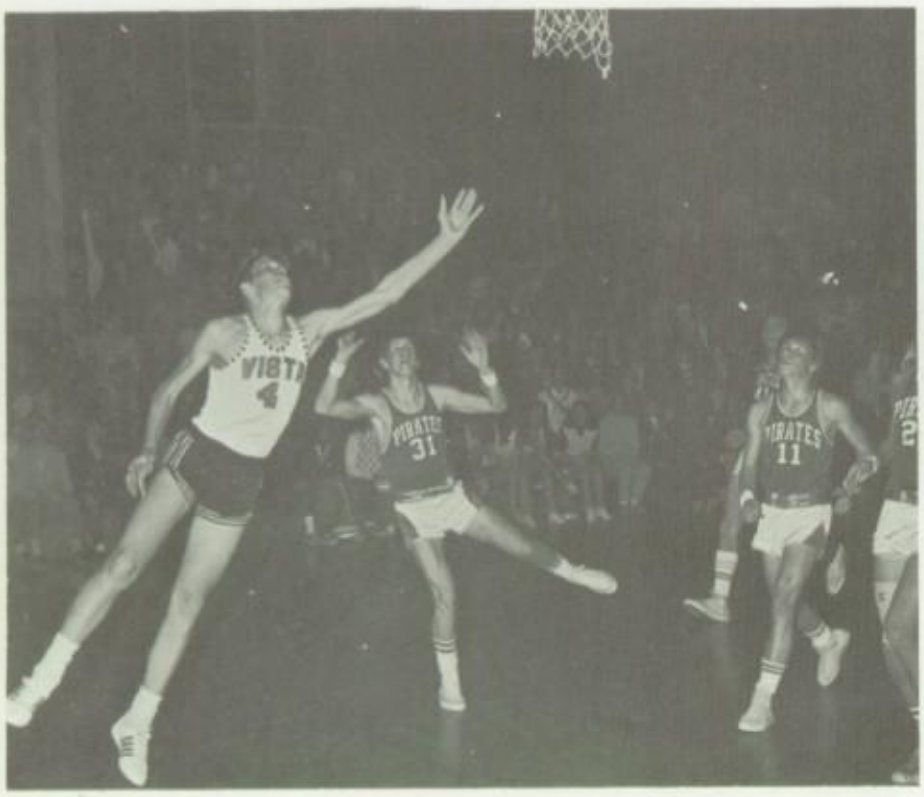


All-Leaguer Dave Brostrom uses every inch of his height to score.

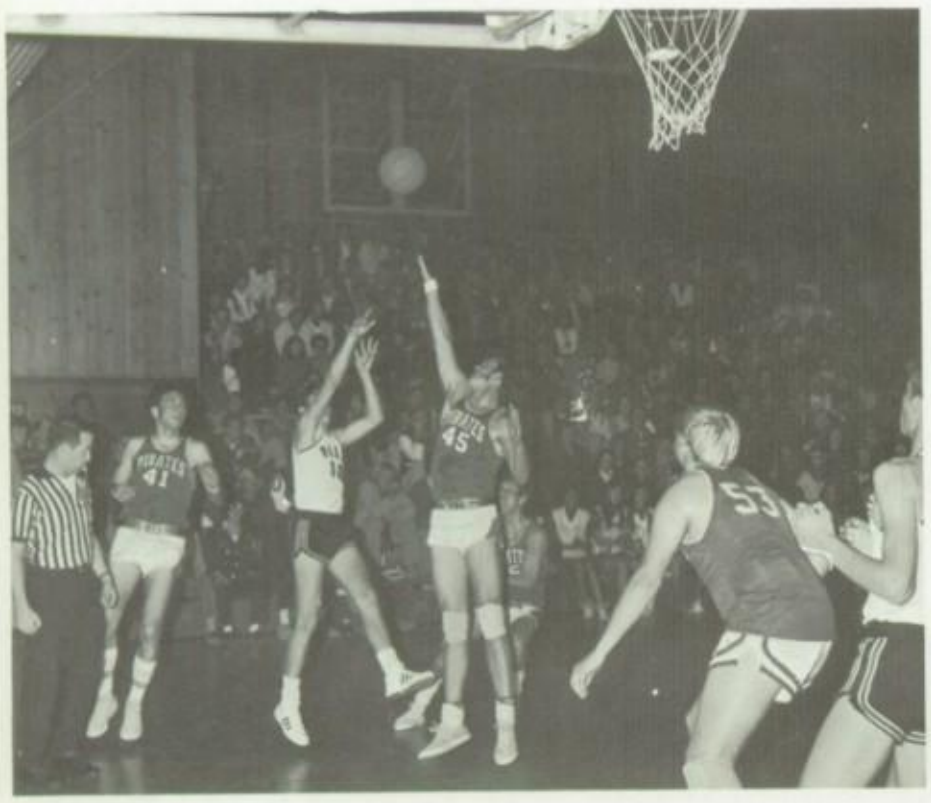
Superguard Brad Gerken soars through toward the basket for two points.

Who says Doug Gudmundson and Mike Kraatz don't have something between them?

Mark Estey shoots over Oceanside defender.



Scott Thayer underhands a shot.



The crowd looks on intently as the ball heads toward the basket.

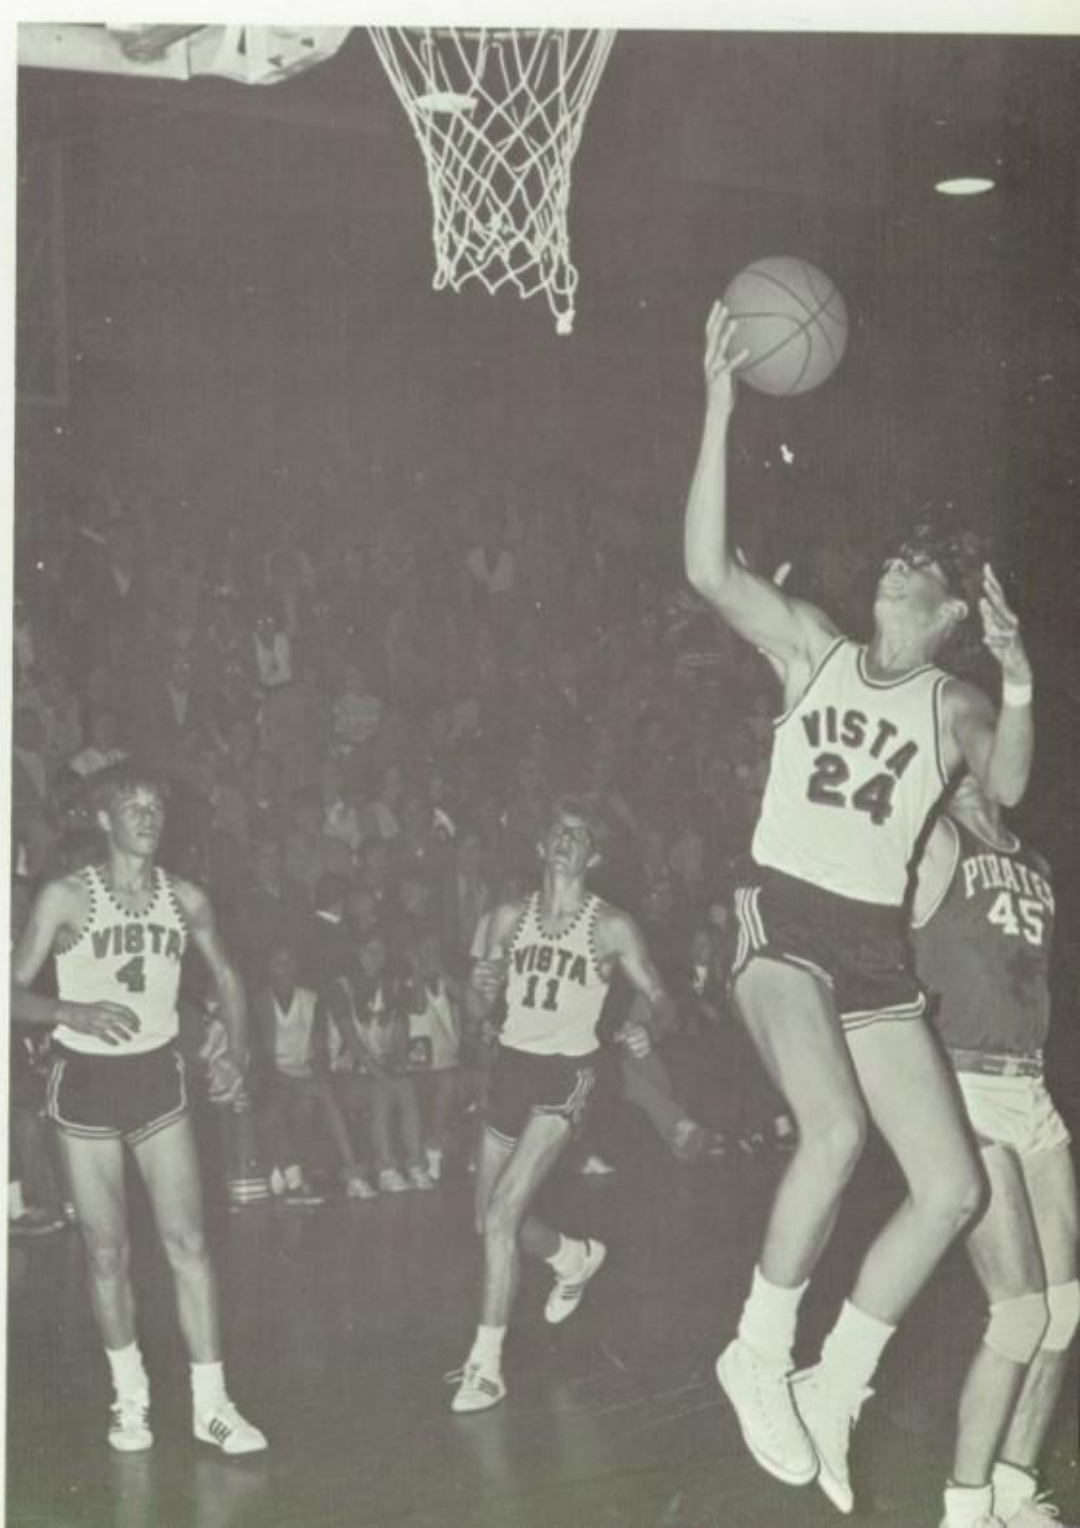
JV Produces

Fine Talent

Despite a poor record of 4-18, Coach Garry Prather developed some fine talent. The usually smaller Panthers had to use speed and quickness to defeat their opponents.

The all-sophomore JV was led by Gary Kocheran who scored as many as 30 points in one game. Leading the fast break were Bill Delaney and Chris Holzinger. Dave Westerhold and Scott Thayer had to battle much taller opponents on the boards and did a fine job. These players, plus a good bench, will be an asset to next year's Varsity.



Scott Thayer and Chris Holzinger watch Gary Kocheran lay it in.

The 1971 track season was a great success. Coaches Jim Downs and Fernie Martinez put together a winning combination. Lead by Ken Parrott, the Vista Spikers bettered many opponents, and also captured the Palm Springs Invitational. With the speed of Darin Redfern and Mark Sikorski in the sprints and Pat Crowell in the distances, Vista Trackmen aquired a name for themselves that made other teams aware.

Wayne Churchman and Scott Stevenson team up to leave Ramona and El Capitan in the dust.

Mark Sikorski explodes out of the block.

Neither rain, nor sleet, nor dampness of dirt can keep Legs Leonard on the ground.
